WAKEFIELD PIGGYBACK FRINGE FESTIVAL®
Wakefield, Quebec
June 25-27, 2010

Greetings Fringers!

It's our third anniversary and you're invited to come be part of the fun! Please note the new dates for 2010: Friday June 25 to Sunday June 27 – it's a weekend Piggy party!

Our festival piggybacks on to the tail end of the Ottawa Fringe. For newcomers, Wakefield is just “up the line” from Ottawa, the nation's capital – about 25 minutes by highway, an hour and a half by steam train. We have one! How quaint is that?

Our three unique venues are within walking distance on the main street that runs along the Gatineau River. The venues are:

- a juke joint divebar (infamous across Canada) where you can still sip on a quart and catch acts like Alpha Yaya Diallo, Buck 65, Jim Cuddy to name a few. Go to www.theblacksheepinn.com for all the info.
- a two-storey 1880s carriage house now fairtrade café / bar with a vintage clothing shop and yoga on the side. New web site coming to www.molos.ca.
- a real live church – great acoustics, solid wood seating.

Piggyback HQ is a cozy lime green café / bar run by some hardcore country band renegades. See www.kaffe1870.com for photos and stuff.

And we have a 280-foot covered bridge...really. Check it out at www.wakefieldquebec.com.
